Council Bill No. 47—the Apportionment bill—was received and read, as follows: TERRITORY OF ARIZONA.
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR,
PHOENIX, March 13, 1891.

PHONIX, March 13, 1891.)

TO THE HONORABLE, THE COUNCIL OF THE SIXTEENTH LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ABLEONA; I return Council Bill No. 47 without approval. It is a bill that, if approved, the executive could not defend on any ground whatever.

The upper house in all American legislative bodies is supposed to be a representation of the political sub-divisions of our system. Thus Riccle Island has the same number of Senators as New York, Delaware the same as Pennsylvania, the representation of the Senate or upper house having reference only to the State, the political sub-division, and not to population or voting power.

The bill practically, though not nominally, oprives the less populous counties of the Tertory of any representation in the Council, For stance, the county of Maricopa will practigly dictate to the counties of Yama and Moive their members of the Council. It is also mbrial whether or not this hill is not uncontuctional, in that the vote of one country elects number of the Council for another country. At y rate the doubt is sufficient to raise the estion, and thus lead to costly contests and tless litigation.

is ittigation, the force is a fitting and it is seen that it is redented in American history. It is based ther the population nor the voting power different counties.

on neither the population nor the voting power of the different counties.

American legislative representation in all the lower or popular bodies is based, everywhere, upon population. It is not the purpose nor the spirit of our institutions to represent the voter alone; our lower house in Congress and in the State Legislature represents the entire population; nor instance, the county of Gila, with a total population of 2021, has two representatives under this bill, while the county of Final, with a total population of 2531, has but one. The population of Maricopa county is 19,988, yet it is given four representatives, while the county of Final, with a population of 2531, has but one. The population of 2531, has but one. The population of 2531, has but one. The council then went into committee of the whole upon the Fees and Salaries bill, Mr. Doran in the chair. Immediately Mr. Hughes moved that the committee rise, report progress and begiven four representatives, while the county of Final, with a population of 2531, has also two.

Apache, with a population of 4281, has only the same representation as Gila, with a population of 2531, has also two.

Apache, with a population of 4281, has only the same representation as Gila, with a population of the ladies of the House. Messrs. Brady, Baldwin and Frank were found absent and had to be house up by the Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Council then whole upon the Fees and Salaries bill, Mr. Doran in the chair. Immediately Mr. Hughes moved that the committee rise, report progress and beginned to 7:30 r. M.

President Hughes in the chair.

Roll call showed all members present.

A large representation of the ladies of on of less than one-half. That is, in effect, the bill says that a fraction

That is, in effect, the bill says that a fraction of four-fifths in Maricopa county equals one in representative power in Pina county, and that one-half in Gia county equals one in Graham; and that about 2000 people in Gochise equal in power 2500 in Pima, and 2700 people in Maricopa equal in power 3500 in Pima, and 2700 people in Gila equal in power over 4000 in Apache. These instances above cited are only the most glaring inconsistencies of the bill.

For the above reasons, and that it is un-American, unprecedented, undemocratic, unjust and indefensible, and that it is a denial of representation to the counties in the first place, and to the people in the second, I decline to approve the bill.
